"Within My Heart There Rings a Melody" could well be the mood of each person on the NWMSC campus as the 1966 Homecoming, "The World of Song," becomes a reality.

After weeks of careful planning and preparation, the campus is alive with Homecoming activity. The last napkins are being stuffed as organizations finish floats. With one performance over, each cast member eagerly awaits tonight's final performance of the variety show.

Over 450 people attended the short program to view the presentation of the Homecoming Queen candidates Wednesday evening in the Charles Johnson Theater.

Student president Nick Erganian presided.

Dramatists to Enact Small Town Life, USA

"Our Town," Thornton Wilder's hit play about American small-town life at the turn of the century, will open in the Auditorium at 8 p. m. on Nov. 9 and continue each evening through Nov. 11.

Tickets for the Speech and Drama Department's presentation of "Our Town," directed by Dr. Ralph Fulsom, chairman of the department, with technical assistance from Kerry Lafferty, will be on sale at the Speech Department or at the door.

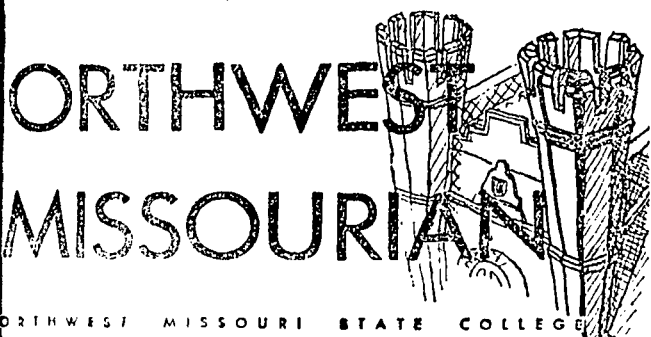

Set in the little New Hampshire town of Grover's Corners, "Our Town" is the story of the typical figures in a country village and the quietly charming lives they led in an era uncomplicated by gadgets. It is the ordinary every-day happenings in small-town life that are portrayed in "Our Town" — the choir practice, the "expensive" ice cream soda date, the tearful wedding, the gossip about the town tippler.

In "Our Town," presented

almost entirely without scenery, a narrator billed as the Stage Manager, invites the playgoer to be his own scenic designer as the play's action quickly shifts from village streets to kitchens, a drug store, the church, and finally to the cemetery on the hill.

The cast of 51 will be led by David Shestak who will be seen as the Stage Manager-narrator. Tom O'Connor will play the town doctor, and Richard Heinz will be seen as the editor of Grover's Corners' newspaper. Anne Nielsen will appear as the editor's wife, and Marcia Hensleigh as the doctor's wife, both of whom have "raised two children apiece, washed, cleaned the house, and never had a nervous breakdown."

Tom LaVille will be seen as the doctor's gangling son, the town's best baseball player, and Margaret Price will portray the editor's daughter that he shyly courts and inevitably marries.

Marketing Club Does Research On Trade Media

Research into various fields is found to be fundamental for future projects of the Marketing Club.

These projects have been designed to provide information to the club as well as to the college and community. Training in product development, including patenting, market potential and product placement, is one of the goals set by the group.

A survey is currently being conducted under the direction of instructors John Herzig and Charles Vitaska, Division of Business. The purpose of the survey is to determine how the St. Joseph East Hills Shopping Center is affecting the Maryville trade media.

Club members have been assigned families to interview by taking random samples from the phone directory in which car registration is the key factor for those selected. Income, average age, and where goods are purchased, are some of the questions being asked by the interviewers. Compiled results of the survey will be published at Thanksgiving time.

A greater interest in marketing and market research has increased club membership, which is not limited to marketing majors and minors. Because of the increased interest, application has been made to the American Marketing Association for chapter membership.

Club members have offered their services to groups such as the Maryville Jaycees for surveys and research. Acquired funds netted after the investigation expenses will be donated for the purchasing of business books for the college library.

Home Economics Club Plans Slave Days

New Members Added to English Faculty To Aid NWMSC Students of Language

New Instructors In English Field

English and its prime importance to the student are topics of discussion for new English instructors and their chairman. Shown are Miss Ellen Thomasson, Myron Taylor, Tommie Chandler, Craig Goad, Paul Jones, Bruce Gawtry, and Miss Mary Buthod, seated; Dr. Frank Grube, chairman of the Department of English, David Coss, and Robert Hutchison, standing.

Nine new instructors have been added to the Department of English this semester, according to Dr. Frank Grube, chairman.

Miss Mary Buthod formerly lived in Tulsa, Okla., where she received both BA and MA degrees from the University of Tulsa.

Tommie Chandler, from Atlanta, Ga., received a BA degree from Berry College, Mount Berry, Ga., where he attended as a National Merit Scholarship honoree. He received an MA degree from Emory University, Atlanta, after being awarded a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship. Receiving a Federal grant from the United States government, Mr. Chandler studied for his PhD at Emory University and is preparing to submit his dissertation this fall.

Before coming to NWMSC, David L. Goss, a native of Grandville, Ill., taught for four years in Illinois school systems. He received a BA degree from Illinois Wesleyan University and an MA from Illinois State Normal University, Normal.

Bruce Gawtry, a graduate of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, formerly lived at International Falls, Minn.

Another newcomer to the English faculty, Craig Goad, whose special interests include creative writing and literary criticism is from Augusta, Kan. He received both a BA and an MA degree from Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia.

Robert Hutchinson, St. Louis, has a BA and an MA degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia. Paul Jones received a BS degree in secondary education from Northwest Missouri State College after he had earned an AA degree from St. Joseph Junior College. He received an MA degree from Southern Illinois University, where he was a teaching assistant for three years while doing further graduate study.

Myron Taylor, originally from Barnett, Mo., received a bachelor of sacred literature degree from the Ozark Bible College, Joplin. He has done graduate work at Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Central Missouri

These Changing Times

Vets' Village Bows to Science

Sentimentalists, vets' village is no more! Your sentiment must now be saved in memories and old photographs. The Glaze Construction Company has torn down the barracks to clear the way for the construction of the new science building.

You can get a last glimpse of the village, though. Go over north of the Administration Building, and you will see buildings that have been left to house construction equipment and tools.

State College, Warrensburg, and Fort Hays, Kansas State College, from which he received an MS degree.

Mr. Taylor taught in the Tipton, Mo., and Springfield, Ill., school systems before coming to NWMSC. He was chairman of the English Department at Springfield High School.

Formerly of Middleboro, Ky., Miss Ellen Thomasson received a BA degree from King College, Bristol, Tenn., an MA degree from Longwood College, Farmville, Va., and has done further graduate study at the University of Nevada, Reno. Miss Thomasson taught French and English for two years in the Delaware, Va., school system.

Two of the new English instructors, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Goad, are serving as leaders of a workshop discussion group today at the State Teachers' Meeting, Kansas City. A fellow instructor, Mrs. Avis Burnett, is the recorder for this workshop.

Sentimentalists, be content. It was built in 1946 from prison barracks purchased from the Federal government to serve as low cost housing for World War II veterans and their families.

The village housed 44 families at a time. There were 22 two-bedroom apartments and 22 with four rooms.

After the war veterans were graduated, the village housed many other student families.

Soon the village land will provide space for the new science building, which is to be three stories, and will have 30,000 square feet of floor space.

Horace Mann Alumni To Gather Tomorrow

The Alumni Association of College High - Horace Mann will hold its annual alumni dinner at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Horace Mann cafeteria.

New association officers will be elected during the business meeting which will follow the dinner. The meeting will be dismissed prior to the time of the Homecoming dance.

College High, which became Horace Mann High School in 1940, was dissolved in 1960, but past students gather annually for this dinner meeting. The Alumni Association has reported that all alumni of Horace Mann High School are welcome to attend the banquet.

An attendance of 150 is anticipated.

Well-Known Russian Novelist To Lecture on Soviet Unrest

"I am a Russina writer, not a Soviet writer. My main purpose in writing is to struggle against communism. I am not a traitor to my country. I love Russia. But the term 'Russia,' I understand, means all the people, not the government, which betrayed the national cause."

So stated Valery Tarsis, lecturer who will speak at Northwest Missouri State College, at his first press conference with Western newsmen after his arrival in London last February. He is being brought to Maryville under the auspices of the Distinguished Lecturer and Performing Art Series and will lecture at 4 p. m. and at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Charles Johnson Theater.

Faculty and students will be admitted with their activity cards. The public will be charged $1.00.

Tarsis is the author of two books, Bluebottle, an attack on Russian communism, and Ward 7, a description of a psychiatric institution for political troublemakers. Both these novels were smuggled to the Western world for publication.

Tarsis, branded by the Soviet press as a "madman" and "psychopath," has been stripped of his citizenship by the Supreme Soviet. This was done after he had been granted permission by the Soviet government to accept an invitation to lecture at the University of Leicester, England.

In commenting on the willingness of the government to get rid of him, he said, "Those in authority thought it best to let me go in the hope that I would not return and I could be branded as a traitor."

MSC Dramatists to Present Hans Anderson's 'Snow Queen'

One of the highlights of the current MSC theatrical season will occur Dec. 8 when the curtains open on a presentation of Hans Christian Andersen's
"The Snow Queen" by members of the Speech and Drama Department.

The play, under the direction of Mr. Rod Wilson, will be given in two performances, a matinee at 2 p. m. and an evening staging at 8 o'clock. Both will be performed in the college auditorium.

The story revolves around a young teenage girl, Gerda, and her friend, Hans. Hans is kidnapped by the Snow Queen and is later carried away to the queen's ice palace. The plot develops as Gerda searches for her missing friend. During her wanderings, she meets many strange characters including a band of thugs led by a woman.

Another prominent figure in "The Snow Queen" is the narrator who begins the play with a prologue to the audience. As he relates the story, he often fades into time and assumes an active role as a clown who aids Gerda.

Some of the characters who add humor to the story are animals such as the ravens, weak
Carl and overbearing Clara.
These two birds befriend Gerda and fly in and out of the action. Other animals in the cast include reindeer and polar bears.

Much of the action in the production will be directed toward the audience. Additional features of interest include six colorful and elaborate sets ranging from the children's garret to the Ice Queen's palace.

Third floor Perrin Hall was in a turmoil one evening after hearing that a mysterious "Homer" roamed the halls. After a closer investigation by one brave girl, it proved to be a rolling apple covered with tissue paper — an animal-like concoction of some elementary major.

Students at Northwest Missouri State College should feel fortunate about having such excellent housing facilities as the new dormitories.

At the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, a chronic housing shortage has sparked plans for student-owned co-operative apartments. There are presently 1,400 students waiting for UBC housing, and another 5,500 are seeking scarce off-campus housing.

A group of AKL boys, accompanied by Ronald Ellis, who played his guitar, serenaded the housemother at Phillips Hall at 11:30 o'clock on Halloween night. Mrs. Ethel Mock remarked that she liked the switch from pranks to lyrics.

Who was the shy coed with a powerful urge and an apple who sneaked out of her room on seventh floor of Franken Hall and extended her arm over the railing of the stairs letting an apple hurl past seven floors to squash in the basement?

The Stroller was amazed to find dozens of women standing in Hudson Hall reception room wrapped in coats and towels at 8 p. m. after a little boy had pulled the first drill alarm. Later that week, Perrin Hall fire drill commotion wasn't complete until someone accidentally broke a hall window on the way back to her room.

One Hudson Hall girl rides away every afternoon on "Herbie," her Harley-Davidson motorcycle. Where is the action?

Dance Decorations Require Planning

Going over decoration plans for tomorrow night's Homecoming dance are committee members Rod Beem, Iris Houston, Carol Breeding, Gary McCollough, and Russell McCampbell. "Moon River" is the theme of the dance, which will feature Billy May and his orchestra.

Annual Alumni Banquet Scheduled for Tonight

The Field Service office, on behalf of the Alumni Association of NWMSC, has announced that the 16th anniversary alumni dinner will be held at 6 p. m. tonight in the Blue Room of the J. W. Jones Union Building. All alumni will be honored; special honor will be given to the classes of 1906, 1916, 1926, 1936, 1946, 1956, and 1966.

A brief business meeting to elect new officers will follow the dinner. The meeting will be adjourned early in order that those attending may view the Homecoming variety show.

The alumni banquet has previously been held in the spring, but this year's meeting will coincide with Homecoming weekend in order to accommodate more alumni.

Psychology Club Meeting To Be Held Monday Evening

The first meeting for those interested in organizing a psychology club will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Room 213, Colden Hall.

All interested students are welcome to attend. Dr. B. Richard Quinn and instructor Wayne Van Zomeren will assist at the meeting.

Dr. J. Gordon Strong, emeritus chairman of the NWMSC Division of Science and Mathematics, will become lieutenant governor of Division II of the Missouri-Arkansas Division of Kiwanis International in January, 1967.

Ideas on Dress Regulations at NWMSC

Following survey of coeds' ideas about campus dress is a sequel to last week's comments by college men.

College students are preparing themselves for a professional world and should choose daily dress to fit into the future life they lead. No one on this campus would walk into business office or classroom wearing cut-offs or a sweatshirt so why should the wearing of regular classes be different?

College is our job for the present, and how we behave here determines our future. We expect neat appearance in our instructors; it is only fair that we, in turn, present them a favorable impression through our dress. It makes both more conscientious.

It is important that the students respect the policy of the NWMSC campus. Since the student is the most important element on the campus, he truly do this only by first respecting his appearance. Visitors will rightly be impressed.

The complaints about the dress regulations are the evening meal can be seen from two sides. It is true that it is hard for the student to have early classes to change to go to the cafeteria for an hour; however, if that student is going out for dinner, he would dress appropriately.

—Kay Elder, senior

"In college, students are striving to prepare themselves for later life. It has been said by many that dress should be the last thing in a student's mind. Much too often, it is placed first and foremost.

"Students should be allowed to wear what they please. A college student should be wise enough to know what to wear and when to wear it. If he has to be told what to wear, then he is not ready for college."

—Pat Nold, sophomore

"I find the dress regulations for both boys and girls here at NWMSC acceptable. I think the rules are lax enough to permit a good deal of variety in the clothing the students can wear, yet strict enough not to let it get out of hand. I don't think the cafeteria rules place anyone under too much hardship since the majority of students are dressed in the manner approved because of classes throughout the day."

—Sue Calbreath, sophomore

"As personality is an individual thing, I believe that what you wear is a reflection of your personality. I believe in individualism as opposed to the stereotyped breed. If the men on our campus want to go without socks to supper, that's fine.

"This does not necessarily mean they do not have the discretion to know that black socks are more acceptable at the office or on a dinner engagement.

"As far as dressing for dinner, I really find it annoying every evening after a day of classes to change clothes again for supper. However, I do think the atmosphere of the cafeteria is more enjoyable and manners more civilized when students wear something besides the traditional sneakers, sweatshirts, and cut-offs.

"As I see it, the longer you're here, the more indoctrinated you become. As time for graduation nears, so does the reality of becoming a professional person. The clothes you wear reflect the new era you are embarking upon."

—Marlene Rempe, senior

STUDENTS SPEAK

Editors
Northwest Missourian

Dear Sirs:

Two weeks ago this paper carried four essays on the subject of academic freedom. One was quite perceptive in stating that there can be no academic freedom without some degree of intellectualism. Then, in last week's paper we witnessed the beginning of intellectualism at NWMSC. The second page carried a picture series showing the initiation of a school tradition.

It is too bad that most great traditions of the world cannot be known beforehand. If they were we could have had photographers at the first dancing of the Hera and the Irish Jig, or perhaps at the first Hawaiian Luau, or even at the first kiss exchanged on the bridge crossing on the grass between Colden Hall and the tennis courts. However, most traditions are the product of customs and practices over many years, they are not pre-planned as are the traditions of NWMSC.

Yes, someday we shall have academic freedom at NWMSC. The only thing holding us back is our inability to read and write.

Sincerely yours,

Frank Connaghan, Jr.

● Lord Byron once said, "There is a tide in the affairs of women which, taken at the flood, leads — god knows where."

Even in the 18 century, the eternal struggle had come to the forefront as a consideration of men, along with the black Plague, war, famine, and gun powder. Women have, it seems, occupied the attention of men since the cursed mistake concerning the apple, and it is the opinion of this writer that such a time-honored institution as the female of the species isn't about to go out of style.

● Twentieth century women however, seem to be doing all in their powers to change their image. Demure beauty has been replaced by the hip-hugging, sweatshirt wearing, hair-ironed class of the age-of space travel.

Quiet intellect, in many instances, has been taken over by sandaled, free-love advocating misses, who apparently mean only to subjugate totally the entire male organization. The next thing, they'll be actually wanting to vote!

● Today more damsels are attending college than ever before. Still it's obvious that the BA, BS, or master's degrees have been replaced by the common MRS degree currently being sought by the fair-haired (peroxide, you know) female American youth.

American women, we realize, have been condemned, congratulated, and confused before. The solution seems to be as the campus philosopher has put it: "Women may not be the perfect opposite sex, but let's face it, fellows: They're the only other sex we have."

Or, as your friend Lord Byron said, "All tragedies are finished by death; all comedies are ended by a marriage." — Amen, brother Gordon; amen.

Let's Measure Up as Hosts

Look sharp, Bearcats!

Tomorrow will be a day during which you will be on display. Besides its being Homecoming, Nov. 5 will no doubt prove to be a school reunion. Many alumni will be on campus for the annual festivities.

These alumni represent the thing we are striving for. They have given their "sweat and blood" and are interested in upholding NWMSC tradition and seeing it progress.

It is up to the students and faculty to give them the reception they so richly deserve. They have returned for more reasons than to watch the Bearcat gridgers in action. The entire campus and those on it are to be observed. We should be grateful that they are interested in the progress of NWMSC — Indeed, they have played a most important role in that progress.

As one NWMSC student to another, let's give them a rousing WELCOME.

Myrl D. Long Is Honored By Gamma Sigma Sigma

Myrl D. Long, instructor in the Department of Chemistry, was honored last week when the fall pledge class of Gamma Sigma Sigma was named in his honor.

Mr. Long, who has sponsored the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity Chapter here for several years, was the contributing factor in organizing Gamma Sigma Sigma sorority on campus in 1959. He is shown above with leaders of the organization as he received the citation.

The service sorority, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Walker and Miss Barbara Palling, became affiliated nationally in the spring of 1960.

The fall pledge class, the first to be named for an individual, consists of Linda Hopkins, Betty Arnold, Ingrid Johnson, Ethel Morey, Pat Walker, and Terri Bender.

Among the many Gamma Sigma Sigma projects include adopting a Korean orphan, visits to the Nodaway Nursing Home, making tray favors for the St. Francis Hospital, and sending gifts to an orphanage in St. Joseph.

Bearcats to Face Warrensburg In Annual Homecoming Classic

Saturday is Homecoming at MSC and if the Bearcats want to salvage a third-place rung on the MIAA ladder, Saturday will be the day to do it as they will revive a football argument with the Warrensburg Mules.

Kick-off time is set at 2 p. m. If the weatherman permits, a capacity crowd is expected to be at Rickenbrode Stadium which was the scene of a 40-12 Homecoming victory for the Bearcats last season against Rolla. Almost every sporting mystic excepting Will Grimsley would call this game a toss-up.

The last two weekends have been real tear-jerkers for the Bearcats. Two weeks ago, a field goal by Cape Girardeau's John Null defeated the 'Cats, 24-21. Saturday, four mistakes amounted to two fumbles and the same number of pass interceptions gave Springfield a 20-7 victory over the Big Green.

While the Bearcats were being stopped by Springfield last Saturday, Warrensburg dropped beleaguered Kirksville, 17-13. Comparatively viewed, Maryville took the Hickory Stick from Kirksville three weeks ago, 24-21.

Warrensburg brings a 2-1 record into Saturday's game while the Bearcats stand a notch lower in league standings with a 1-2 slate. The Mules feature a diversified Wing-T offense that has scored in double figures all season without the services of starting quarterback Ken Brumley, a junior college All-American, who sustained an injury early in the season. Brumley still ranks fourth in scoring and third in passing.

With or without Brumley, the Mules still have some capable ponies in the corral. Dave Johnson ranks fourth in the rushing department as he gained an average of 4.9 yards a carry. Keith Browne, a 6-4 split end, is the seventh leading pass catcher in the league.

Statistically, the Mules have the leading ground attack in the conference as their ball carriers have rushed for 1,442 yards in seven games. On defense it is a different story as the Mules have given up 1,556 yards on the ground to rank last in that department.

To counteract Warrensburg's luke-warm defense Coach Schottel has the league's third leading rusher, Jim Blankenship. The senior co-captain from Grandview has averaged 5.0 yards a carry. Joe Spinello, who broke into the starting line-up against Kirksville is ranked eighth in the league with a 4.4 average.

A stingy defense headed by middle linebacker Lonnie Hagan is rated second in the conference as the 'Cats have held opponents to 1,137 yards on the ground.

Last season, the Bearcats' play defeated Warrensburg 28-7 to bolster their series lead of 25-17-3.

Mrs. Dorothy Walker Named State Chairman

Mrs. Dorothy Walker, instructor in the Department of Women's Physical Education, has been appointed officiating chairman for Missouri.

As chairman of a joint committee of the Division for Girls' and Women's Sports of the American Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation and the Missouri State High School Activities Association, one of Mrs. Walker's chief duties will be to coordinate officiating in Missouri.

Folk Singers to Meet

The Folk Singers will have its second meeting of the year in the Upper Lakeview Room of the Union Building, 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

According to Stuart Lewis, advisor, this will be an informal meeting. Election of officers and adopting of the constitution will take place Nov. 13.

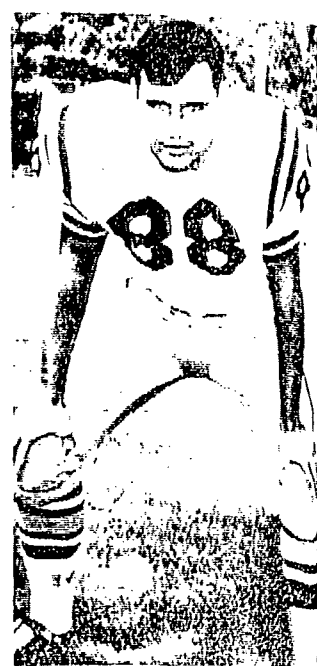

Coach Schottel Cites Bearcat Stars

Coach Ivan Schottel named Leon Muff and Mike Peterson as the outstanding offensive and defensive players of the week for their performance in the Cape Girardeau game.

Coach Schottel cited Muff, a 215-pound sophomore end, for his outstanding line blocking and punting.

Leon Muff

Mike Peterson

Peterson, a 195 pound halfback, was commended for his outstanding pass defense. He held to zero yardage the Indians' Chuck Koerner, the pass reception yardage leader of the MIAA.

Leon Muff and Paul Stehman have been named by Coach Ivan Schottel as the players of the week by virtue of their superior performances in last week's game at Springfield.

For the second consecutive week Muff has been lauded for his outstanding blocking, receiving, and punting. His punt against Springfield averaged 47.3 yards.

Stehman received high praise from Coach Schottel for his ferocious defense after replacing Bob Leach at the middle guard position.

Women's Intramurals To Commence Nov. 8

Plans for women's intramural volleyball starting Tuesday, Nov. 8, were made at a recent dinner meeting of the Women's Intramural Council at the home of Dr. Kathryn Riddle.

Chairman Carol Wolverter presided at the meeting planned for organizing activities for the coming year. On Nov. 7, a rules clinic will be held for participants in the volleyball intramurals.

All students and organizations wishing to enter teams may obtain entry sheets from Dr. Riddle, Miss Wolverter, Sandy Eckhoff, or Marilyn Wilson. The deadline for submitting entries is Nov. 7.

Pool, Gym Open For Winter Use

With cold weather limiting outdoor activities, students and faculty members are reminded that Lamkin Gymnasium and the swimming pool in Martindale Gymnasium are opened evenings for their use.

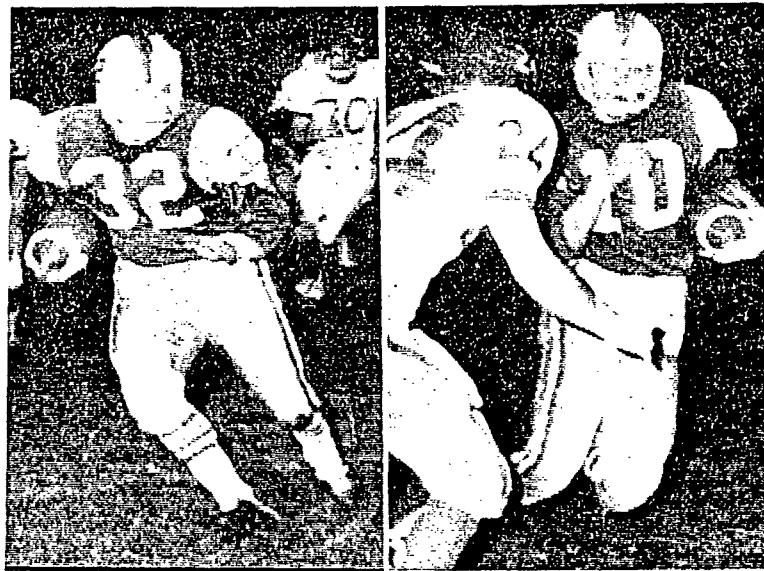

Lamkin Gymnasium will be open from 6:30-9:30 Monday through Saturday nights and from 1 to 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoons. All students and teachers may use the weight room, handball court, indoor track, basketball court, baseball batting cage, wrestling room, smash and table tennis equipment, gymnastic equipment, volley ball and badminton areas, and the locker facilities during the open hours. Equipment needed for these activities may be checked out by any student who presents his I. D. card.

The pool will be opened Monday and Wednesday nights from 7 to 9 o'clock for co-educational swimming.

Dorothy Walker To Represent Missouri

Mrs. Dorothy Walker, instructor in the Department of Women's Physical Education, is one of five Missouri representatives chosen to participate in the National Institute on Girls' Sports to be held Dec. 3-10 at Indiana University, Bloomington.

The institute is sponsored by the Women's Board of the United States Olympic Development Committee and the Division for Girls' and Women's Sports of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. Its purpose is to "increase depth of experiences and expand opportunities for girls and women in the sports of volleyball" and is designed to "increase understanding of basic and advanced skills of volleyball."

Backfield Men Pick Up Yards

Joe Spinello, sophomore halfback, heads for "daylight" to earn his first tally of the evening. In the picture on the left, quarterback Don Orlowski picks up twelve yards on a keeper play before being met by Cape defender Clyde Vaughn.
